OF PROGRAMME.

Abroad,

Høn. P. B. Wickham, of Mandan, North Dakota, who has been visiting his brother, Capt. W. W. Wickham, of the North End, for a few days, leaves for his home to-day. This was his first visit to Wheeling for a number of years.
Mr. Wickham is the treasurer of Morton county, and was a member of the state's first legislature. He is an extensive sheep buyer, and on coming east sold four carloads of sheep at Chica st. at 44 a head. Since '33 he said it was almost impossible to sell them at $1 a head, and the increase in the price of wood of from six cents to twelve and one-half cents in his state, he said, would result in the Republicans carrying North Dakota next time without effort. Mr. Wickham, in further conversation anent the wood business, said that farmers and buyers had lost money every year since the '32 panic until this fall. Like Lieutenant Governor Devine, an old Wheeling boy, he is an enthusiastic North Dakotan. As an instance of the healthful climate he referred to Manhaven, a village in Mercer county, containing one hundred and fifty families, mostly Russian, which had no rallroad, church, or any of the institutions supposed to go with a settlement, but it prided itself on the fact that there isn't a doctor within miles of the village. FAIR AT THE CARROLL CLUB AUDITORIUM-A DAILY CHANGE Odd Fellows' hall last evening was a in space for the throngs of people gathprised beyond expression at the large at-

Morgan has returned The supper tables were loaded down The supper tables were loaded down with turkey and the other delicacies that go to make a substantial repast, and around them sat many a customer. Dinner was served to a large number, but the majority ate supper, which was the chief attraction from 5 to 8 o'clock. In addition, refreshment tables appealed to the palate, and many were made happy by the partaking of the ice cream and other light refreshments. No hungry man that entered the doog was allowed to escape until his wants were assuaged. Owing to the fact that the tables mono-polized so much room there were but a few booths. Each of these had a dis-tinctive color of decoration, and each did a land office business. The dolls and fancy articles were disposed of at ready sales, and with the commingled sound of the vendors crying their wares, it was though a stock exchange had broken lose. Everywhere was animation and enjoyment, and as the First Christian congregation and its friends were out in force, a sociable family gathering aptly terms the enjoyable affair. The bazaar concluded at 10 o'clock. For an hour previous the unsold articles Thomas McCann and family, former-y resident of East Liverpool, Ohlo,have moved to the Island, and are now loca-ted at No. 39 South Huron street. LOST TWO BARGES.

LOST TWO BARGES.

The Dave Wood, which had trouble opposite Sewickley Wednesday, coilided with the Hawk at Baker's Island, and suffered the loss of two coal boats, which are said to be very much in the chainel. The coal was owned by the McKinley Coal Company, and the Hawk is the property of the same firm, It is said the Hawk was to blame in the collision. The loss will amount to about $2,500, partially insured.

THE MARIETTA BRIDGE,

Rivermen, especially the coal men, are interested in the proposed bridge across the Ohlo at Marietta, connecting that town with Williamstown, on the West Virginia shore. Yesterday the committee of the Pittsburgh coal exchange passed through the city for Marietta to attend the hearing before the board of United States army engineers. The committee is composed of Mr. John F. Dravo, so well known as an advocate of free navigation on the Monongahela; Addison Lysle and J. L. McPheeters. Major Charles F. Powell, of Pittsburgh, senior member of the board, also passed through yesterday, as did Mr. W. C. Jutte, one of the bridge promoters. The hearing was to have been held last night.

Avoid An Early Grave.

How often do we hear, that the avenue to an early grave was opened by neglecting a slight cough and cold. Profit by this truth, and provide yourself with Dr. Bull'a Cough Syrup, which instantly cures all throat and lung affections. Mr. W. H. Mahoney, Lowell, Mass., writes: "I was taken sick with a bad cold. The doctors did not seem to help me, and everybody said I was getting consumption, when a relative recommended Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup. I got a bottle and it helped me, and after taking two bottles I was cured, to the surprise of everybody. I shall always recommend it to my friends, as I know it to be a sure cure."
